

PUBLIC LEADER

THIRD YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1894.

ONE CENT.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

Get your Easter dress at Hoeft's. Trimmings free.

PURCHASER ENCOURAGED! O. O. F. will meet tonight. Work.

JOHN L. CHAMBERLAIN has qualified as Notary Public, with R. A. Carr surety.

R. B. CASE has moved to the city and taken temporary residence on Lexington street.

W. LAKE THOMAS, under the influence of the beautiful weather, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. PAUL BERT, sister of Mrs. Charles Peers of Charleston Bottom, is seriously ill at Hebron.

The Commercial Gazette struck a knot yesterday. It failed to reach here on the morning train.

The venerable J. Harvey Meensch had to recover his health as to be in town Saturday.

WILLIAM E. POORE has qualified as administrator of Frank Pogue, with Joel Layman surety.

Rev. JOHN A. LAMONT of the Christian Church has been authorized to solemnize matrimony.

This fire at 11:30 Saturday night wasn't any. A big light back of Abernethy caused an alarm.

It is rumored that Senator Hill of New York is soon to marry Miss Letitia Scott, formerly of Louisville.

THE BANANAS has taken the place of the Sunshine in opposition to the independent steamer Henry M. Stanley.

GEORGE WERLECK, formerly of Vanceburg, has bought the store of James C. Burns at Johnson Junction.

The commercial travelers of Huntingdon will form a council of the United Commercial Travelers next Saturday.

MISS ANNA C. C. has returned from Cincinnati with the latest styles in dress making. Rooms over W. S. Frank's law office.

AN infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shepard died Saturday night and was buried at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

ALL members of the Louisville City Council have been cited to appear before the Grand Jury to tell what they know about bribery.

The Opera-house was poorly patronized Saturday night, though the performance was very good—far better than has been given to many a crowded house.

A LETTER from M. H. Gilmore to hand yesterday, gives most encouraging news. He is now able to walk half a mile each morning—but is not yet a sprinter by any means.

At Louisville Mrs. McGrath, who sued William Elkie for $20,000 because he had sold her infatuated husband whisky, was awarded damages in the sum of $1,000.

The contractors are beginning work on the Pythian Temple at Henderson, which, when completed, will contain anything of the kind in Southern or Western Kentucky.

WALKER BATHMAN will leave about April 1st for Jamestown, O., where he will join the great Fred Locke Circus, of which he will be an agent the coming summer.

In a few weeks the old dry goods house of R. Knott & Sons, Louisville, will be closed and the firm will go out of existence. This means the death of one of the pioneer houses of the state.

A RUMOR is running around Frankfort to the effect that ex-Governor Buckner is going to join Governor Brown, ex-Governor McCrory and Mr. Blackburn in the premature scramble for the United States Senatorship. Oh, no. Democrats don't want no offices.

THE City Council of Frankfort has concluded to fix a license of $30 on all business houses, big and little, rich and poor, except in the case of laundries and butchers, which will be required to pay a license of $50. Bank license will be from $100 to $300, according to the amount of capital stock.

W. G. Bloom received word Saturday of the death of his father, Joseph Bloom, at Ripley, and he immediately went to that place. Mr. Bloom was 84 years of age and the funeral, which will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, will be conducted by Rev. P. D. Hat of the M. E. Church. Quite a number went to Ripley this morning to be present at the funeral.

SPRINKLER glove sale at Hoeft's. Don't miss it.

REGULAR meeting of Mason Lodge, F. A. M., tonight.

A. Wayneville Jones Wheeler, 76, and Mrs. Ella C. 72, each of whom has been married three times before, joined their hands and hearts in a fourth venture.

MR. JOHNSON of Boston has bought of Peter Evans & Son of Fayette county the trotting mare Elsie Wilkes, four years old, by Thorne Wilkes, dam by Greenwood; price $2,000.

MAYOR DUNCAN and his son Henry of Lexington gave bond in $5,300 to answer to the indictments brought against them. The cases have been docketed for the April term.

SEVERAL members of Maysville Chapter, R. A. M., will leave on the 4:45 train this afternoon to visit Greenup Chapter. There will be work in the R. A. Degree and a speech.

They Are Here. Another large supply of Magic City No. 2 arrived this morning and we are now prepared to fill all orders.

The demand was so great last Saturday that our large supply was exhausted within an hour after the distribution began.

Out our coupons and get No. 3 next Saturday, and come in today and get No. 2. It is a handsome number.

HON. THOMAS H. PAYNTER has THE LEDGER's thanks for the memorial addresses on the late Hon. John W. Kendall.

THE present session of the Legislature will round out its existence tomorrow. The actual expenses of the session for per diem, mileage, stationery, printing, pay of officers and employees, etc., will aggregate something like $50,000.

THE trial of George F. Green, indicted for murder of John R. Davidson, was concluded at Owingsville Saturday, the jury bringing in a verdict of acquittal.

SAULING has been tried seven times, resulting in one hung jury, one conviction and life sentence to the penitentiary.

THE receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Mason County. $ 274.20
Lexington. 214.40
Peoples. 200.00
Total. $ 688.60

CHAMP EXCURSION. Only $1.50 Round Trip to Cincinnati Wednesday, March 14th.

The C. & O. Railway will run its third theatrical extension to Cincinnati. Tickets will be good going on all regular trains of March 28th, and good returning on special train leaving Cincinnati (Fourth Street Station) at 11:30 p. m. same day and on trains No. 2, 11:30 p. m. and 5:15 p. m. Thursday, March 29th.

Among the many fine attractions offered at the numerous theaters of this date will be the appearance of the "Walnut" of James J. Corbett, "Champion of the World" with his excellent company in "Gentlemen Jack."

For further particulars see small bills or apply to Ticket Agents C. and O. Railway.

An influential politician from the Ninth Congressional District reports in Frankfort the Representative of the State of Fleming will be a sure enough Congressman. He says that besides being so popular with the masses Mr. Hart is in every organization from being a Sir Knight in the Masonic Order to that of peace-disturber in a sewing circle.

FOUR Short street boys, ranging anywhere from 10 to 14 years of age, were in the Police Court Saturday afternoon on a peculiar charge. They were found down on the grade draining old empty beer kegs of their contents and in this manner got some old slide beer. It is a most barbarous practice, and the little fellows, in their ignorance, had no idea of the danger of it. Judge Wadsworth gave them some excellent fatherly advice, and warned them if they appeared in Court again they would establish a whipping post, and the next time any one of them brought into Court he would endeavor to prove its usefulness.

Colonel W. W. Baldwin is home from Frankfort.

Major E. A. Robinson left last night for West Virginia.

Thomas Gilmore of the C. and O. was in the city yesterday.

Miss Alice Shea returned Saturday night from Cincinnati.

J. D. Dry has returned from a tour of Northeastern Kentucky.

Garrett R. Wall came down from Ashland yesterday afternoon.

Colonel Frank S. Owens is home from Grayson, Ky. at ten o'clock.

Colonel Walter Blatterman of Cincinnati is on a visit to his parents here.

Miss Audie Shepard will go to Cincinnati tomorrow to remain for a week or so.

Mrs. M. T. Hough of Cincinnati was here yesterday on a visit to her brother, L. Hill.

Colonel Talcott of the C. and O. Dining car Bureau spent yesterday in Maysville.

Mrs. Charles Smoot of Tuckahoe was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilson at Aberdare.

Mrs. Mand Stephens of Frankfort is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wilson at Aberdare.

Harry B. Shockey, an old Maysville boy now connected with The Enquirer of Cincinnati, was in the city this morning.

THREE years ago William Shields, a Lexington saloon keeper, killed Patrick Haddon in a row. Haddon's widow sued Shields for $15,000 for the loss of her husband. Shields set up as defense that he killed Haddon in self-defense. The jury found a verdict for the defendant.

THE LEDGER is the largest daily paper printed in Maysville—costs the publisher and measures little.

It gives you more reading matter than any other.

It is sold at the same price as any other Maysville paper—costs a copy or 25 cents a month, delivered by carrier or sent by mail. It is as good for your money as any other paper.

Now is the time to subscribe—subscribe you give it a month's trial.

THE LEDGER on Saturday began distributing to its patrons the finest series of World's Fair Views that have yet been issued. This is the testimony of all who have seen them.

Now we will try to make plain the way to get them.

First—Cut out of THE LEDGER this coupon.

Public Ledger.

Magic City Art Portfolio Coupon.

Send or bring to the office of THE LEDGER SIX Coupons like this, of different dates, and Ten Cents in silver, and receive Art Portfolio.

NOTE—Six Coupons of different dates and Ten Cents are required for each Portfolio. There will be sixteen numbers.

March 12, 1894.

Send—When you have cut out SIX coupons of different dates—if you live in the city and your paper is delivered by carrier—bring them to this office written TEN CENTS, and one book of the Views will be given to you. If you live at some other place, send the six coupons and ten cents by mail to the office and the book will be sent to you by mail from Philadelphia.

Third—If you have mislaid any of your coupons, you can get the book 15 cents each, and you can get the numbers at any time. After that finished appropriate binding at a small cost.

The set comprises sixteen when completed it will magnificent volume. It is a treasure for so little.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

When we mean five.

